

Privacy Notice for Henry Webb

Thank you for choosing to instruct me in your case. I will need to collect and hold your personal information in order to represent you. I will take all possible steps to protect your personal information. I am determined to do nothing that would infringe your rights or undermine your trust. This Privacy Notice describes the information I collect about you, how it is used and shared, and your rights regarding it.

Data Controller

I am registered with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) as a Data Controller for the personal data that I hold and process as a barrister. My registered address is Selborne Chambers, 10 Essex Street, London WC2R 3AA and my registration number is Z9450772.

Data Collection

All the information that I hold about you is provided to or gathered by us in the course of your case and/or proceedings. Your solicitor and/or I will tell you why we need the information and how we will use it.

Our Lawful Basis for processing your information

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) requires all organisations that process personal data to have a Lawful Basis for doing so. The Lawful Bases identified in the GDPR and which apply as between us are:

- The data subject has consented to the processing.
- The processing is necessary:
  - In relation to a contract which the data subject has entered into; or
  - Because the data subject has asked for something to be done so they can enter into a contract.
- Performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller.

- The legitimate interests of ourselves, or a third party, except where such interests are overridden by the interests, rights or freedoms of the data subject.

Examples of legitimate interests include:

1. The individual whom the sensitive personal data is about has given explicit consent to the processing.
2. The individual has deliberately made the information public.
4. The processing is necessary in relation to legal proceedings; for obtaining legal advice; or otherwise for establishing, exercising or defending legal rights.
5. The processing is necessary for administering justice, or for exercising statutory or governmental functions.
6. The processing is necessary for monitoring equality of opportunity, and is carried out with appropriate safeguards for the rights of individuals.

I use your information to:

- Provide legal advice and representation
- Assist in training pupils and mini-pupils
- Investigate and address your concerns;
- Communicate with you about news, updates and events;
- Investigate or address legal proceedings relating to your use of my services/products, or as otherwise allowed by applicable law.

I do not use automated decision-making in the processing of your personal data.

I collect and process both personal data and special categories of personal data as defined in the GDPR. This includes:

Client data

- Name;
- Email;
- Phone number;
- Address;
- Payment or bank details (occasionally);

- Date of birth;
- Location details;
- Device IP address;
- Financial information.

I may share your personal data with:

- Instructing solicitors
- Pupil or mini pupil, under my training
- Opposing Counsel, for the purposes of resolving the case
- My Chambers management and staff who provide administrative services
- My regulator or legal advisors in the event of a dispute or other legal matter;
- Law enforcement officials, government authorities, or other third parties to meet our legal obligations;
- Any other party where I ask you and you consent to the sharing.

Transfers to third countries and international organisations

I transfer personal data to the following third countries or international organisations using the identified safeguards because the company's servers are based there.

1. United States – Dropbox cloud computing servers are based in the United States. The company confirms that it complies with the requirements of the GDPR and your data is encrypted in any event.

I am satisfied that such transferred data is fully protected and safeguarded as required by the General Data Protection Regulation.

I retain your personal data while you remain a client unless you ask me to delete it. My Retention and Disposal Policy (copy available on request) details how long I hold data for and how I dispose of it when it no longer needs to be held. I will delete or anonymise your information at your request unless:

- There is an unresolved issue, such as claim or dispute;
- I am legally required to; or

- There are overriding legitimate business interests, including but not limited to fraud prevention and protecting customers' safety and security.

Your Rights

The General Data Protection Regulation gives you specific rights around your personal data. For example, you have to be informed about the information I hold and what I use it for, you can ask for a copy of the personal information I hold about you, you can ask us to correct any inaccuracies with the personal data I hold, you can ask us to stop sending you direct mail, or emails, or in some circumstances ask us to stop processing your details. Finally, if I do something irregular or improper with your personal data you can seek compensation for any distress you are caused or loss you have incurred. You can find out more information from the ICO's website http://ico.org.uk/for\_the\_public/personal\_information and this is the organisation that you can complain to if you are unhappy with how I dealt with you.

Accessing and Correcting Your Information

You may request access to, correction of, or a copy of your information by contacting me at Selborne Chambers, 10 Essex Street, London WC2R 3AA.

You can edit your personal data by writing to me at Selborne Chambers, 10 Essex Street, London WC2R 3AA.

Marketing Opt-Outs

You may opt out of receiving emails and other messages from my Chambers by following the instructions in those messages.

Cookies
